ABOUT

Trailblazers is Search360's annual fundraising event, taking place on June 4, 2026, at Sarabande Chicago. Search360 (Search) is a nonprofit organization that empowers people with intellectual and developmental disabilities (I/DD) to achieve their full potential, lead rich and rewarding lives, and hold valued roles within their communities. Proceeds from Trailblazers directly support our critical mission and programs, including Community Living homes, Career Services, Day Services, Clinical Services, Community Education and Social Enterprises.

On this exciting evening, we will come together to imagine what's next, celebrating the future of Search and the possibility that lies ahead for our organization and the people we support. By sponsoring Trailblazers, you play a important role in advancing inclusion while gaining meaningful exposure to Search's broad network of supporters, partners, and community leaders.
